

Dr Andrew Hallahan, MBBS BSc (Med), FRACP, FRACMA

Current role

Sydney LHD, Executive Director Medical Services Clinical Governance and Risk July 2020 –current

- Executive medical leadership for Sydney LHD: governance of recruitment and appointment systems and credentialing; Quinquennial renewal; leadership development and mentoring; oversight of medical professional matters.
- Executive clinical governance and risk leadership providing assurance and improvement to deliver safe, effective, patient and family centered care; successful accreditation of all Sydney LHD Facilities
- LHD Program leadership: National Standards Accreditation; Hospital Associated Complications; Clinical Variation; Respiratory Protection; Sepsis; Sharps Injury Prevention; Voluntary Assisted Dying
- State Representation: CEC Critical Response Advisory Group; NSW Health Artificial Intelligence Expert Panel; NSW Directors of Clinical Governance; NSW Executive Directors of Medical Services; NSW Mandatory Training Committee

Recent experience

Children's Health Queensland Executive Director Medical Services	January 2016 - July 2020
Clinical Excellence Queensland Paediatric Medical Lead	July 2016 – July 2020
Children's Health Queensland Paediatric Oncologist	January 2005 – January 2016
Children's Health Queensland Medical Lead Patient Safety	January 2012 – January 2016

Education and qualifications

Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators FRACMA	2019
Royal Australasian College of Physicians FRACP	1999
University of NSW Diploma of Paediatrics	1994
University of Sydney MBBS (Hons Class 1)	1991
University of Sydney BSc (Med)	1989
