

Jacqueline Blackshaw

Current roles

Western NSW Local Health District, People and Culture Directorate 2022 - Current
District Manager Education and Training

Recent experience

Western Sydney Local Health District 2020 -2022
Manager Nursing, Midwifery and Allied Health Education

Health Education and Training Institute 2019 -2020
Senior Program Manager, Leadership and Management Development

Health Education and Training Institute 2018 -2019
Acting Director, Management Development

Western NSW Local Health District June 2018 –October 2018 & May 2019 –November 2019
District Manager, Nursing and Midwifery Workforce

Greater Western Area Health Service 2009 -2012
Manager, Centre for Rural and Remote Education

Greater Western Area Health Service 2008 -2009
District Manager, Nursing Workforce Programs

Bathurst Health Service, Greater Western Area Health Service 2006 -2008
Nurse Manager, Education

Clinical Excellence Commissioner 2007 -2008
Facilitator, Clinical Leadership Program (part-time secondment)

Charles Sturt University 2003 -2006
Lecturer and Subject Coordinator (Nursing and Paramedic students)

Justice Health and Mid Western Area Health Service Mental Health Nurse	2003 -2005
Far West Area Health Service Health Service Manager, Mental Health Counselling Service (Bourke)	2003 -2003
Boehringer Ingelheim Pharmaceuticals (UK) Sales Representative and National Sales Trainer	1998 -2001
Macquarie Area Health Service Health Education Officer and Registered Nurse	1993 -1997

Education and qualifications

Charles Sturt University Master of Leadership and Management (Nursing)	Current
Sydney TAFE Diploma of Project Management	2019
University of Western Sydney Master of Nursing (Mental Health Nurse Practitioner)	2017
Curtin University Graduate Diploma of Education (Higher & Further)	1999
Charles Sturt University – Mitchell Bachelor of Health Science (Nursing)	1995
Charles Sturt University – Mitchell Diploma of Health Science (Nursing)	1993