

Dr Justine Harris, BSc, MBChB, LLB(Hons), MHM, FRACMA

Current role

NSW Ministry of Health, Chief Medical Workforce Advisor January 2024 –current

- Provision of advice on Medical Workforce to internal and external stakeholders
- Collaboration with NSW Health agencies, including LHD/SNs, HETI, ACI, CEC on matters related to medical workforce and college accreditation
- Lead NSW MoH medical workforce projects, including Assistants in Medicine, IMG Clinical Readiness Program, Psychiatry Workforce Plan, NSW Rural Generalist Program
- Represent Ministry of Health on State Training councils and committees, including Radiology, Psychiatry, Medical Administration, Physician Training, CPD homes, national prevocational framework
- Represent NSW as the jurisdictional representative on national committees including the Medical Workforce Advisory Collaboration, National Rural Generalist Strategic Council, Jurisdictional Implementation Forum, AMC Progress Monitoring Subcommittee and various committees related to projects under the Health Workforce Taskforce

Recent experience

Northeast Health, Wangaratta, Locum Executive Director Medical Services	August 2024 –December 2024
Illawarra Shoalhaven Local Health District, District Director Medical Workforce	November 2019 –July 2024
South Eastern Sydney Local Health District, Director of Clinical Services, Sutherland Hospital	January 2012 –November 2019
Health Support Services, Project Manager Medicine	May 2010 -December 2011
Sydney West Area Health Service, Assistant Director Medical Administration	January 2008 –May 2010

Education and qualifications

Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators - Fellowship qualification	2014
University of NSW, Masters Health Management	2010 -2011
University of Sydney, Bachelor of Laws (1st Class Honours)	2005 -2007
Otago University, Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery	1993 -1997
Otago University, Bachelor of Science	1990 -1992