

JARROD MARSDEN

[Redacted text block]

Introduction

[Redacted text block]

[Redacted text block]

Work experience history

May 2022—present—senior maintenance planner—Aeris Resources Tritton Operations, assist with mobile plant planning, helping with transition from SAP to Pronto, developing PM maintenance strategies, component changeout strategies, OEM BOM's etc.

September 2017—May 2022—Maintenance superintendent—Peak Gold Mine

Reporting to the Maintenance manager, responsible for all surface, ore processing, underground, and hoisting fixed plant as well as light mobile fleet maintenance activities. Also project managing structural remediation and plant replacement programs.

June 2012 to August 2017—surface maintenance superintendent—CSA mine

Reporting to the ore processing manager, responsible for all surface and ore processing maintenance activities (mechanical and electrical). Also project managed the installation of 3 x TC40 flotation tank cells, a 4 downcomer and a 10 downcomer Jameson cells—total value 8 million dollars.

April 2009 to June 2012—Surface Maintenance Planner—CSA mine

Responsible for planning all electrical and mechanical maintenance activities in the ore processing department, assist with budget preparation as well as tracking of costs and monthly reporting, manage projects in the ore processing area, plan and execute all shutdown activities, develop and implement process improvement's, and manage / liaise with external contractors and suppliers.

June 2008 to April 2009—surface mechanical tradesman—CSA mine

Responsible for carrying out mechanical maintenance activities in the ore processing area, including preventative and breakdown maintenance of SAG mills, various slurry and water pumps, conveyors, concentrate filters, thickeners, floatation cells ect.

Nov 2002 to June 2009—underground fixed plant fitter—CSA mine

Responsible for preventative and breakdown maintenance of underground fixed plant including the dewatering pumping system, crushers, hoisting, winder, loading station, ventilation system, as well as underground water and compressed air piping circuit.

Work history continued

October 1999 to Jan 2002—Mill Fitter / operator—CSA mine

Responsible for the day to day maintenance and operation of the milling circuit. Including experience in grinding, floatation, filtering, tailings and backfill areas. The work team was made up of tradesman who maintained as well as operated the plant.

References

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Interests and Activities

[REDACTED]

Volunteer Experience

Councilor—Cobar Shire Council 2008 to present, deputy mayor 2012-2013, 2020-present

Chairman—board of directors—Lilliane Brady Village Nursing Home 2022-present

President of Cobar Rugby Union Club 2006-2008 and 2013-14, vice president 2011. life member

President—Cobar Miners Race Club 2016-present

