

James Ross CPA

Current role

Central Coast Local Health District, District Director
Finance and Corporate Services February 2023 –current

Responsible for strategic financial planning, monitoring, and reporting budget performance to the Chief Executive, Board and the Ministry of Health (MoH). Accountability for submission of statutory reporting requirements of the organisation including addressing audit matters and ensuring appropriate financial management controls and practices are consistent with MoH and LHD policies and directions.

The role also carries responsibility and oversight of capital planning, asset management, maintenance services, revenue, clinical products, car parking, contracts and leases, fleet, environmental sustainability, and procurement functions.

Recent experience

Western NSW Local Health District, Acting Executive Director, Planning, Performance, Funding & Corporate
Services Directorate October 2022 – January
2023

Northern Sydney Local Health District, Financial
Controller (previously, Finance Manager) -Royal North
Shore Hospital July 2021 –September
2022

Northern Sydney Local Health District, Business Manager
-Division of Surgery & Anaesthesia September 2020 –July 2021

Northern NSW Local Health District, Business Manager -
Lismore Base Hospital January 2018 –September
2020

Education and qualifications

CPA Australia, Certified Practicing Accountant 2009

University of Newcastle, NSW, Australia, Bachelor of Management (Major: Accounting) 2006