

Bradley Scotcher

RN, BN, MPH, MBA (Dist)

Current role

Southern NSW Local Health District, General Manager – November 2022 – current Coastal Network

This position is part of the SNSWLHD Executive team and has a direct reporting relationship to the Executive Director of Operations. The position has accountability and responsibility for the management of all services in the Coastal Network from an operational and strategic perspective.

Recent experience

Illawarra Shoalhaven Local Health District, Director of Nursing & Midwifery Services – Shoalhaven Hospital Group January 2018 – October 2022

Illawarra Shoalhaven Local Health District, Deputy Director of Nursing & Midwifery July 2007 – January 2018

Education and qualifications

University of Wollongong, Master of Business Administration (Distinction) 2022

University of Western Sydney, Master of Public Health 2002

University of Western Sydney, Bachelor of Nursing 1994

Awards

Premier's Citation, Response to 2019/20 Bushfires in NSW 2020

Professional Development Activities

NSW Leadership Academy, Public Service Commission Signature Program 2023

Professional Memberships

Member, NSW Nurses and Midwives Association 1995 – current

Member, NSW Nurses and Midwives Board Nurse Practice Committee 2009 – 2011

Assessor, Australian Nursing & Midwifery Accreditation Council 2011 - 2023